Dedication

The Senior Class of 1966 has had a great deal of guidance and supervision under this advisor. He has helped the Senior Class through financial and other class problems, and also has tried to get the seniors more privileges. He has really done his best to help the Senior Class.

Now it's time the Seniors did something for him. We are proud to dedicate this yearbook to

MR. HARVEY DURHAM

Foreword

The Senior Class of 1966, now is the first class to complete four years of supervision, guidance, and education in the school.

In MEMOIRS of 1966, the staff and I, have tried to show the school life and atmosphere for the Junior and Senior High students.

We hope that this yearbook will express the fun, sorrows, and hard work of all the students, and will hold many special memories for the Senior Class.

Principal's Message

The Class of 1966 represents our first group of young people who have completed four years of education at the new high school. I would like to congratulate them on this occasion which might seem a rather routine matter. Our new building with its new facilities has enabled the class of 1966 to benefit from a much richer course of studies than any graduating class to date. These young people have acquired more units of credit and mastered a greater body of knowledge consequently than any class to date. As the years go by I am sure they will find this added education has prepared them well to face the next step in their career, whether it be college life, a job in the working world, military service, or family life.

Dr. Frank J. Filippone
Principal

Vice-Principal's Message

I say goodbye to the class of 1966 with mixed emotion. You are certainly leaving R-C-S during exciting times. Today we are space walking a hundred miles above the earth; by the time you celebrate your 10th reunion someone, possibly one of you, will be on the moon. Today medical breakthroughs have helped us to control polio and many other diseases; who knows by 1976 we may even have licked the common cold.

It is also a world fraught with many dangers. You are leaving R-C-S at a time when we are faced with challenge in Viet Nam and uncertainty elsewhere. I hope that by your first reunion this world will again be at peace.

But the wonderful thing about you young people is your reservoir of resilience, enthusiasm, and optimism. Armed with these and the knowledge you acquired at R-C-S you will have a good start in meeting the challenges of the future.

Herbert Holland
Vice-Principal

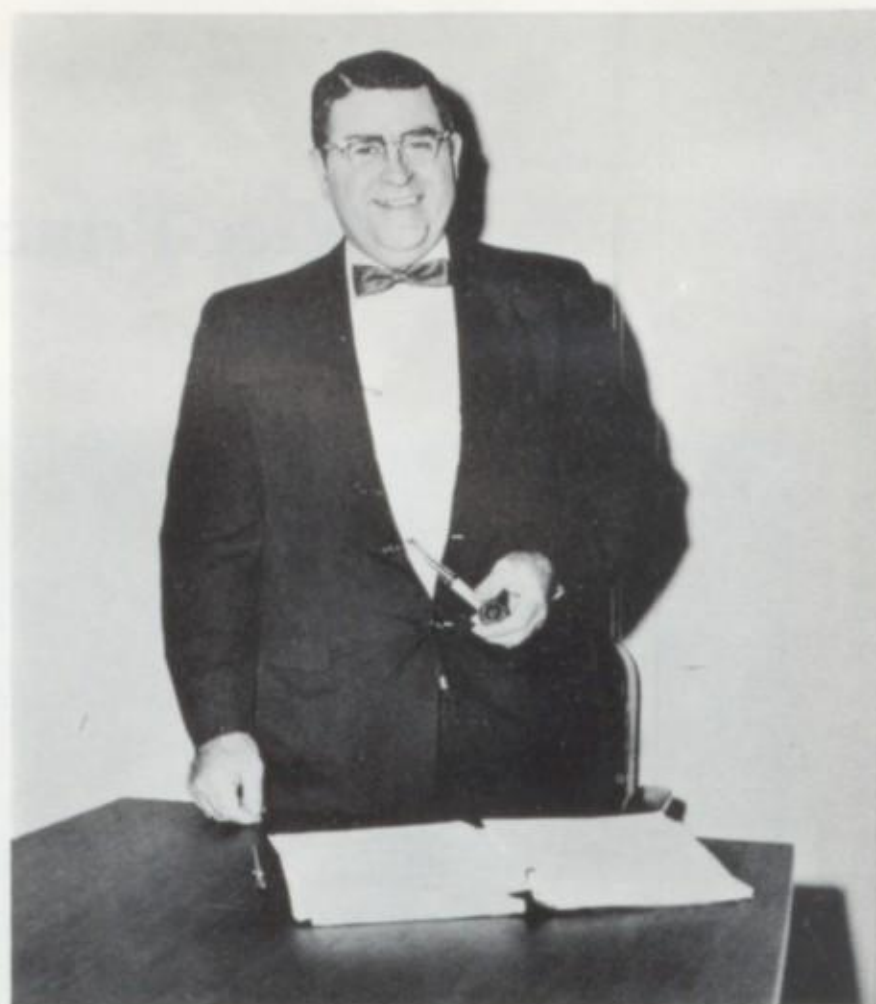

To the Class of 1966:

As you come to the culmination of your long years in our school system, the Board of Education once again salutes you.

For these many years we have watched you grow, and needless to say, we are pleased with your progress.

As you go on to whatever course you have selected for yourselves, our thought and our hopes are with you. Your success is our success. The achievement of your hopes is our greatest desire.

Good luck and Godspeed,
Prescott D. Archibald

With many pleasant memories of the past four school years and high hopes for the future, we, the class of '66, take our leave from R-C-S.

We shall never forget our freshman year, as it was our first year in the new high school. During our sophomore year, we had our first experience in raising money for our class and this was done by selling wrapping paper.

Our Junior year proved still more exciting and interesting for our class. We received our class rings at the annual Ring Dance, which was a memorable time for all of us. Later in the year, we put on a car wash which showed to all how successful and enjoyable a project can be. Then in the spring, we sponsored our Junior Prom, "Magic Moments".

As seniors we took our class to new heights in the winning of scholarships and achieving other scholastic honors.

The Sno-Ball, a Junior-Senior basketball game, the senior banquet and last of all Graduation put the finishing touches to our final days at Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk Central School.

Prom

"Magic Moments" was the theme chosen for the Junior Prom. Indeed it was, for on May 22, 1965, new stars developed in the eyes of the prom court. At the magic hour, 11 p.m., the court and candidates marched down the aisles to the stage of the auditorium.

Former King Gary Kellam and former Queen Debbie Wagoner, were followed down the aisle by Adele Rickard, John Datri, Shirley Hamlin, Neil Martin, also Leo DiPerrio, Dorothy Logan, Bobby Knox, and Kathy Frances. Following them came the Juniors: Keith Armstrong, Mary Datri, Chris Frances, Jean Hains, Larry Parks, Marcia Babcock, Guy Wyche and Sharon Tryon. Then came the Seniors: Ria Diacetis, John Lann, Linda Halstead, and Joey Croscup.

At last the special moment arrived and King Gary and Queen Debbie crowned Guy Wyche and Marcia Babcock as their successors. This happy moment will always live in the memories of the class of '66.
